

Hamline School of Business PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION PROGRAMS

LEARNING PARTNERSHIPS

Partner with the region's leader in public administration education.

Hamline School of Business understands the important role that scholarships serve in helping students finance their education. In recognition of the key contributions made by city and county employees to the common good, Hamline has formed learning partnerships with a range of cities and counties to offer employees, as well as their family members, scholarships and discounts to further their professional development.

LEARNING PARTNER BENEFITS:

- 20% off registration fees to any event hosted by the Center for Public Administration and Leadership (CPAL).
- 20% off tuition for any CPAL Certificate program.
- $800 scholarship per year (renewable up to $1,600) for Hamline's Master and Doctorate of Public Administration programs.

